

99 SUMMERS UNDER THE PINES... AND COUNTING!

2026 SUMMER IMPACT REPORT

YOUR GENEROSITY IN ACTION.

A space of becoming.

Thanks to your support, 1,325 campers had the opportunity to spend two or four weeks at Huckins this summer—where girls find belonging, build confidence, and discover more of who they are.

While campers play, sing, laugh, try new things, and build friendships, something deeper is taking shape. Huckins gives girls the space to grow into themselves—to feel seen and supported, to discover their own strength, and to know that they belong.

For 99 summers, Huckins has provided this important space for young people during their formative years. Thanks to you, it continues to thrive—and to shape generations in ways that last long after summer ends.

Thank you!

Courage, creativity, and care.

Thanks to your support, the Huckins Spirit remains strong and vibrant after 99 summers. It lives on through cherished traditions and counselors who find great meaning in creating camp magic for their campers—just as generations of counselors did for them.

Thanks to you, Huckins continues to be a place of freedom and creativity, where girls are encouraged to take risks, try new things, and discover what they're capable of—all with the support of friends and counselors beside them.

I will be true, for there are those who trust me;

I will be kind, for there are those who care;

I will be strong, for there are those who struggle;

I will be brave, for there is much to dare.

Ensuring camper access.

Thanks to your support, this summer Huckins was able to keep annual tuition increases to just 4-5% while providing more than $475,000 in financial assistance to more than 400 campers through tiered tuition and financial aid.

This support is made possible by annual gifts to the Huckins Fund, income from Huckins' Scholarship Endowment, and a growing number of named endowed scholarships, each of which provides a full camper scholarship every year, forever.

Together, these resources help us work toward a simple but important goal: that every girl who wishes to make Huckins her summer home can do so, regardless of financial means.

Caring for our summer home.

Thanks to your support, every year Huckins is able to thoughtfully reinvest in the spaces that make Camp our summer home. Our dynamic five-year capital plan is reviewed and reprioritized annually, helping ensure investments are made where they are needed most.

This summer, that included a much-needed new storage building, which will streamline opening and closing Camp, protect our small craft equipment, and free up the Sports Complex for community programming. Middler cabins received new roofs and the Junior cabin floors were replaced...goodbye splinters! The waterfront floats had reached the end of their life cycle, and their replacements included thoughtful improvements, such as eliminating Styrofoam and using wooden decks (which will not get hot in the summer sun!).

Through careful planning and your support for the Huckins Fund and General Endowment, Huckins can provide the best possible experience for campers today while caring for the Camp that will welcome generations to come.

A strong foundation for the future.

Thanks to your support—and generations of careful stewardship by the Huckins Board and Camp leadership—Huckins enters its 100th year on a solid financial foundation. We maintain a healthy operating model while keeping tuition increases moderate, with strong reserves, a growing endowment providing permanent operating and scholarship support, and very little debt. This stability also allows us to invest each year in Camp’s programs and facilities.

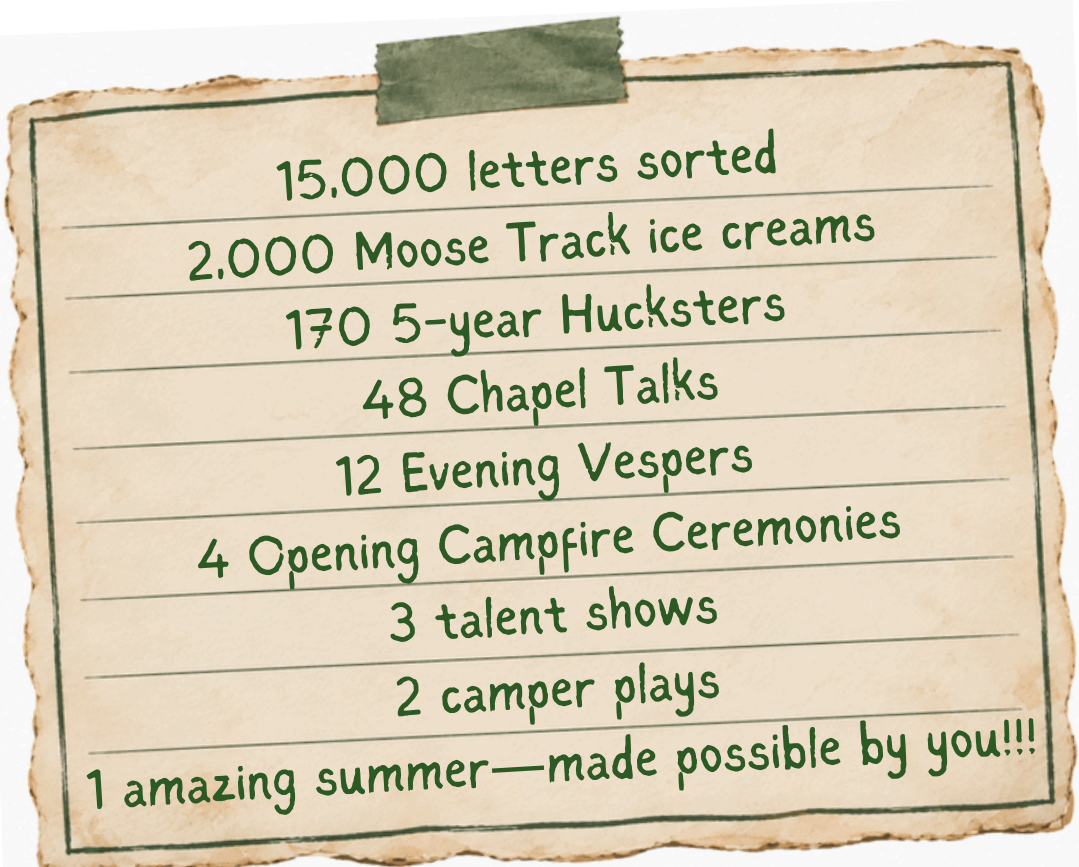

With that strong footing comes an equally strong sense of responsibility: to be careful stewards of the resources entrusted to Huckins and to plan strategically and thoughtfully for the future.

As we approach Huckins’ 100th birthday, we have an extraordinary opportunity to look ahead—not just to the next summer, but to the next 100 years. Thanks to you, we can thoughtfully consider what Camp needs to serve today’s campers and generations yet to come, while ensuring that the mission, traditions, and spirit at the heart of Huckins remain unchanged.
